| January 1 st | “Every day, in every way, I'm getting better and better.”
Emile Coué |
| January 2 nd | “A conservative is a man who is too cowardly to fight and too fat to run.”
Elbert Hubbard |
| January 3 rd | “A goal is a dream with a deadline.”
Napoleon Hill |
| January 4 th | “A man has to learn that he cannot command things, but that he can command himself; that he cannot coerce the wills of others, but that he can mould and master his own will: and things serve him who serves Truth; people seek guidance of him who is master of himself.”
James Allen |
| January 5 th | “Without promotion something terrible happens... Nothing!”
P.T. Barnum |
| January 6 th | “Get rich, that is the best way to help the poor... The poor do not need charity; they need inspiration. Charity only sends them a loaf of bread to keep them alive in their wretchedness, or gives them entertainment to make them forget for an hour or two; but inspiration will cause them to rise out of their misery. If you want to help the poor, demonstrate to them that they can become rich; prove it by getting rich yourself.”
Wallace D. Wattles |
| January 7 th | “A failure is a man who has blundered, but is not able to cash in the experience.”

January 8th

“There are many who are living far below their possibilities because they are continually handing over their individualities to others. Do you want to be a power in the world? Then be yourself.”

Ralph Waldo Trine

January 9th

“Action is the real measure of intelligence.”

Napoleon Hill

January 10th

“One draws to himself thought waves corresponding in character with the nature of the prevailing thoughts in his own mind - his mental attitude. Then again he begins to set in motion the great Law of Attraction, whereby he draws to him others likely to help him, and is, in turn, attracted to others who can aid him.”

William Walker Atkinson

January 11th

“We should have no regrets. The past is finished. There is nothing to be gained by going over it. Whatever it gave us in the experiences it brought us was something we had to know.”

Rebecca Beard

January 12th

“A little more persistence, a little more effort, and what seemed hopeless failure may turn to glorious success.”

Elbert Hubbard

January 13th

“A man is literally what he thinks.”

James Allen

January 14th

“When your desires are strong enough you will appear to possess superhuman powers to achieve.”

January 15th “All achievements, all earned riches, have their beginning in an idea.”
Napoleon Hill

January 16th “Nothing can prevent your picture from coming into concrete form except the same power which gave it birth – yourself.”
Genevieve Behrend

January 17th “A man is not paid for having a head and hands, but for using them.”
Elbert Hubbard

January 18th “At least ninety per cent of our mental life is subconscious, so that those who fail to make use of this mental power live within very narrow limits.”
Charles F. Haanel

January 19th “Borrowing knowledge of reality from all sources, taking the best from every study, Science of Mind brings together the highest enlightenment of the ages.”
Ernest Holmes

January 20th “By constant self-discipline and self-control you can develop greatness of character.”
Grenville Kleiser

January 21st “All the breaks you need in life wait within your imagination, Imagination is the workshop of your mind, capable of turning mind energy into accomplishment and wealth.”

January 22nd

“A retentive memory may be a good thing, but the ability to forget is the true token of greatness.”

Elbert Hubbard

January 23rd

“A man is not rightly conditioned until he is a happy, healthy, and prosperous being; and happiness, health, and prosperity are the result of a harmonious adjustment of the inner with the outer of the man with his surroundings.”

James Allen

January 24th

“Wise men, when in doubt whether to speak or to keep quiet, give themselves the benefit of the doubt, and remain silent.”

Napoleon Hill

January 25th

“Every crowd has a silver lining.”

P.T. Barnum

January 26th

“Any change, even a change for the better, is always accompanied by drawbacks and discomforts.”

Arnold Bennett

January 27th

“An idea that is not dangerous is unworthy to be called an idea at all.”

Elbert Hubbard

January 28th

“Any idea, plan, or purpose may be placed in the mind through repetition of thought.”

Napoleon Hill

February 6th

“Character is the result of two things: mental attitude and the way we spend our time.”
Elbert Hubbard

February 7th

“A miracle is nothing more or less than this. Anyone who has come into a knowledge of his true identity, of his oneness with the all-pervading wisdom and power, this makes it possible for laws higher than the ordinary mind knows of to be revealed to him.”
Ralph Waldo Trine

February 8th

“To become really rich is the most noblest aim you can have in life, for it includes everything else.”
Wallace D. Wattles

Napoleon Hill

February 21st

“Do not take life too seriously. You will never get out of it alive.”

Elbert Hubbard

February 22nd

“God gives some more than others because some accept more than others.”

Ernest Holmes

February 23rd

“Into the hands of every individual is given a marvellous power for good or evil-the silent, unconscious, unseen influence of his life. This is simply the constant radiation of what man really is, not what he pretends to be.”

William George Jordan

February 24th

“Words are also seeds, and when dropped into the invisible spiritual substance, they grow and bring forth after their kind”

Emile Coué

March 8th

“Circumstances do not make the man, they reveal him.”
James Allen

March 9th

“Friendship, like credit, is highest when it is not used.”
Elbert Hubbard

March 10th

“Give every man more in use value than you take from him in cash value; then you are adding life to the world by every business transaction. If you have people working for you, you must take from them more in cash value than you pay them in wages; but you can so organize your business that it will be filled with the principle of advancement, and so that each employee who wishes to do so may advance a little every day.”
Wallace D. Wattles

“I do not believe that God has imposed suffering upon anyone to punish them or to teach them a lesson.”

Ernest Holmes

March 14th

“Genius may have its limitations, but stupidity is not thus handicapped.”

Elbert Hubbard

March 15th

“The best way to overcome undesirable or negative thoughts and feelings is to cultivate the positive ones.”

William Walker Atkinson

March 16th

“You can not entertain weak, harmful, negative thoughts ten hours a day and expect to bring about beautiful, strong and harmonious conditions by ten minutes of strong, positive, creative thought.”

Charles F. Haanel

March 17th

“Education comes from within; you get it by struggle and effort and thought.”

Napoleon Hill

March 18th

“Dream lofty dreams, and as you dream, so you shall become. Your vision is the promise of what you shall one day be; your ideal is the prophecy of what you shall at last unveil.”

“The supreme courage of life is the courage of the soul. It is living, day-by-day, sincerely, steadfastly, serenely, - despite all opinions, all obstacles, all opposition. It means the wine of inspiration from the crushed grapes of our sorrows. This courage makes the simplest life, great; it makes the greatest life - sublime. It means the royal dignity of fine individual living.”

William George Jordan

March 27th

“For true success ask yourself these four questions: Why? Why not?
Why not me? Why not now?”

James Allen

March 28th

“In principle the great religions of the world do not differ as much as they appear to.”

Ernest Holmes

March 29th

“Every adversity, every failure, every heartache carries with it the seed on an equal or greater benefit.”

Napoleon Hill

“Nature intends all men and women to be mental and spiritual giants, and does not intend that any one should follow the will of another.”
Christian Larson

April 27th

“Life is simply time given to man to learn how to live. Mistakes are always part of learning. The real dignity of life consists in cultivating a fine attitude towards our own mistakes and those of others. It is the fine tolerance of a fine soul. Man becomes great, not through never making mistakes, but by profiting by those he does make; by being satisfied with a single rendition of a mistake not encoring it into a continuous performance; by getting from it the honey of new, regenerating inspiration with no irritating sting of morbid regret; by building better today because of his poor yesterday; and by rising with renewed strength, finer purpose and freshened courage every time he falls.”

“To avoid criticism, do nothing, say nothing, and be nothing.”

Elbert Hubbard

November 22nd

“The man who does more than he is paid for will soon be paid for more than he does.”

Napoleon Hill

November 23rd

“We are all, no doubt, born for a wise purpose.”

P.T. Barnum

November 24th

“Your own mind is a sacred enclosure into which nothing harmful can enter except by your permission”

Arnold Bennett

November 25th

“What you admire in others will develop in yourself. Therefore, to love the ordinary in anyone is to become ordinary, while to love the noble and the lofty in all minds is to grow into the likeness of that which is noble and lofty.”

Christian Larson

| November 26th | “We are not punished for our sins, but by them.”
Elbert Hubbard |
| November 27th | “The most interesting thing about a postage stamp is the persistence with which it sticks to its job.”
Napoleon Hill |
| November 28th | “To desire is to obtain; to aspire is to achieve.”
James Allen |
| November 29th | “You can develop good judgement as you do the muscles of your body - by judicious, daily exercise.”
Grenville Kleiser |
| November 30th | “You can attract only that which you mentally become and feel yourself to be in reality.”
Ernest Holmes |
| December 1st | “We awaken in others the same attitude of mind we hold toward them.”
Elbert Hubbard |
| December 2nd | “The starting point of all achievement is desire. Keep this constantly in mind. Weak desires bring weak results, just as a small amount of fire makes a small amount of heat.”
Napoleon Hill |

December 3rd

“Your diamonds are not in far distant mountains or in yonder seas; they are in your own backyard, if you but dig for them.”
Russell H. Conwell

December 4th

“Kindness is the golden key that unlocks the hearts of others”
Henry Drummond

December 5th

“He who can change his mind every day and think the new about everything every day, will always be well; he will always have happiness; he will always be free; his life will always be interesting; he will constantly move forward into the larger, the richer and the better; and whatever is needed for his welfare today, of that he shall surely have abundance.”
Christian Larson

December 6th

“We work to become, not to acquire.”
Elbert Hubbard

December 7th

“The starting point of all achievement is desire.”
Napoleon Hill

December 8th

“When mental energy is allowed to follow the line of least resistance and to fall into easy channels, it is called weakness.”
James Allen

December 9th

“Unless a man enters upon the vocation intended for him by nature, and best suited to his peculiar genius, he cannot succeed.”
P.T. Barnum

Below are some of their thoughts and ideas...

December 10th

“The way to develop decisiveness is to start right where you are, with the very next question you face.”
Napoleon Hill

December 11th

“Your friend is the man who knows all about you, and still likes you.”
Elbert Hubbard

December 12th

“A man carries his success or his failure with him, it does not depend on outside conditions.”
Ralph Waldo Trine

December 13th

“Your opinion of your mental capacity may be great, but if your idea of intelligence is crude, your intelligence producing thought will also be crude, and can produce only crude intelligence. It is therefore evident that to simply think that you are brilliant will not produce brilliancy, unless your understanding of brilliancy is made larger, higher and finer.”
Christian Larson

December 14th

“The world has the habit of making room for the man whose actions show that he knows where he is going.”
Napoleon Hill

December 15th

“If the tissues of your body have not been so destroyed that continued life is impossible, you can get well; and if you will think and act in a Certain Way, you will get well.”
Wallace D. Wattles

December 16th

“Begin to act from your dominion. Declare the truth by telling yourself that there is nothing to be afraid of, that you no longer entertain any images of fear.”
Ernest Holmes

December 17th

“Where much is expected from an individual, he may rise to the level of events and make the dream come true.”
Elbert Hubbard

December 18th

“There are no limitations to the mind except those we acknowledge.”
Napoleon Hill

December 19th

“Whether you be man or woman you will never do anything in this world without courage. It is the greatest quality of the mind next to honour.”
James Allen

December 20th

“No man can pass his self-imposed bounds or limitations.”
Orison Swett Marden

December 21st

“Today is the day in which to express your noblest qualities of mind and heart, to do at least one worthy thing which you have long postponed.”
Grenville Kleiser

December 22nd

“There is no hope of success for the person who does not have a central purpose, or definite goal at which to aim.”
Napoleon Hill

December 23rd

“It is a sin to be poor.”
Charles Fillmore

Below are some of their thoughts and ideas...

December 24th

“Love is the magic key that unlocks the doors of heaven. We do not have to ask for love, but only to give it - to express it. Love is the supreme law of life: guided by Wisdom it rules the universe. Every thought, every desire, every word, every emotion that is not Love, or which is against Love, or is out of harmony with the Law of Love, creates disorder, suffering, discord, ugliness, unhappiness, from which there is no escape. "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." Nothing is truer than this - that we are mixed up with the disorder of our own sowing, that we cannot escape from it, except we make the supreme surrender to the Law of Love, and bring every thought, word, deed and desire into captivity to it.”

Henry Thomas Hamblin

December 25th

“Instead of pointing a finger, we should hold out our hand”

Henry Drummond

December 26th

“Think twice before you speak, because your words and influence will plant the seed of either success or failure in the mind of another.”

Napoleon Hill

December 27th

“Every man has an atmosphere which is affecting every other.”

William George Jordan

December 28th

“Work joyfully and peacefully, knowing that right thoughts and right efforts inevitably bring about right results.”

James Allen

December 29th

“You are more than you appear to be -
Life is greater than you have ever known it-
The best is yet to come.”

Ernest Holmes

December 30th

“Think and grow rich.”

“There is one quality which one must possess to win, and that is definiteness of purpose, the knowledge of what one wants, and a burning desire to possess it.”

Napoleon Hill

January 1st

“Be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. Talk health, happiness, and prosperity to every person you meet. Make all your friends feel there is something special in them. Look at the sunny side of everything. Think only of the best, work only for the best, and expect only the best. Be as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own. Forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future. Give everyone a smile. Spend so much time improving yourself that you have no time left to criticize others. Be too big for worry and too noble for anger.”

Christian D Larson

January 2nd

“To get to heaven we must take it with us”

Henry Drummond

January 3rd

“Confidence is the father of achievement.”

Orison Swett Marden

January 4th

“You will become as small as your controlling desire; as great as your dominant aspiration.”

James Allen

January 5th

“Victory is always possible for the person who refuses to stop fighting.”

Napoleon Hill

January 6th

“The secret of visualization lies in the occult and psychological principle that “as is the mental matrix, so is the mental form; and as is the mental form, so is the physical materialization”.”

William Walker Atkinson
